

My family and I have had a much more restful and quieter life with the Indiana law restricting unwanted calls from business. I used to get so many calls and some would just hang up on you if they were using autodialers. I would have many hang up calls on my answering machine. I do hope you will not diminish the useful power of the Indiana calling law. Thank you for letting give my imput...

Paul Wolfe